A bit about me...

I have been the Headteacher at our school since 2004. I am passionate about all pupils from all walks of life being provided with opportunity and a first class education. My proudest moment has been seeing our school grow and double in size as well as successfully achieving 2 outstanding Ofsted inspections. I love our community that we serve; it is an exciting, passionate and aspirational place to be. My claims to fame are that I have visited Downing Street and met our Prime Minister but more importantly I have taught 2 famous names... 'Bruce Lee and Bob Marley!'
